

PREPARED FOR
You
PREPARED BY Steve Neal Real
Estate team

BEST OFT LYNCHBURG

The City of Seven Hills

Whether you love the outdoors, history, art, or a night on the town, Lynchburg has something for you. This guide will help you discover some of Lynchburg's best attractions and will likely leave you with a desire to relocate here!

Snowflex

Located at Liberty University and open to the public, Snowflex makes year-round snow sports possible. Skiing, snowboarding, or tubing—Snowflex has it all!

There is no shortage of places to move to. So why Lynchburg? Lower than average cost of living, thriving industries, a healthy small business environment, and a multitude of colleges and universities comprise only part of what Lynchburg has to offer.

With a flourishing downtown, close proximity to mountains, rivers, and lakes, and a rich history, the Lynchburg area makes for a fantastic place to plant roots and raise family. Continue reading and plan a visit to see if the Lynchburg area is right for you!

Things to do

1. Visit Amazement Square with your family for a variety of hands-on learning experiences. Amazement Square is a museum with kid-friendly interactive exhibits that make learning fun!
2. Head to SeaQuest at River Ridge Mall for more unique hands-on learning experiences at Lynchburg's aquarium.
3. If you're interested in creative puzzles and unique experiences, you should visit One Way Out to see if you can find your way out of their escape rooms.
4. The Lynchburg Community Market downtown offers an opportunity to support local farmers and artisans while picking up a variety of fresh produce and meats, baked goods, crafts, and other locally sourced goods.

Lynchburg is home to an abundance of parks, art galleries, breweries, and wineries.

You can tour one of its many historic sites, hike nearby mountains, and eat at one of Lynchburg's delicious restaurants, just to name a few options.

Parks

1. Peakview Park
2. Riverside Park
3. Hollins Mill Park
4. Blackwater Creek Natural Area
5. Percival's Island Natural Area
6. Liberty Mountain Snowflex Centre
7. Holliday Lake State Park
8. Liberty Lake Park

Each of our parks offers unique experiences the whole family can enjoy. Some offer an opportunity for fishing or hiking, while others have sports complexes and outdoor gyms open for public use.

In addition to this list, which is in no way exhaustive, Lynchburg is situated near both the Jefferson and George Washington National Forests!

“

Laughter is brightest where food is best

-Irish Proverb

Local Food Favorites

No guide to Lynchburg would be complete without a list of some of our best restaurants so we have compiled a list of local favorites for you to explore!

- The Cavalier
- Market at Main
- Bootleggers
- The Skyline Grill
- My Dog Duke's Diner
- Iron & Ale
- Benjamin's
- Depot Grille
- Shoemakers American Grille
- Waterstone Fire Roasted Pizza
- Isabella's Italian Trattoria
- El Jefe Taqueria Garaje

The Great Outdoors

1. Close proximity to the George Washington and Jefferson National Forests means easy access to world-class hiking, fishing, hunting, and camping.
2. Less than an hour from Smith Mountain Lake, the Lynchburg area makes for a great basecamp for lovers of watersports and boating.
3. Situated on the James River, Lynchburg offers easy access to fishing, river floats, and walking trails that follow along the river.

Our mountains, lakes, rivers, and streams support an abundance of outdoor adventures. Hike the AT, fish for trout, ski year-round, or wakeboard Virginia's largest lake. Lynchburg is a haven for those avid about living an outdoor lifestyle.

Art and Theatre

Lynchburg is home to an array of art galleries and theatres that provide a tasteful artistic touch to the city. Take classes, view and buy masterful art, or enjoy an evening at the theatre watching the work of actors local and abroad.

Theatre, Art Galleries, Classes, and More...

Lynchburg is home to a growing and increasingly vibrant art scene. You can explore the work of local, national, and international artists at such venues as the Academy Center of the Arts, Riverviews Artspace, Be Kind Gallery 101, and Maier Museum of Art at Randolph College.

You can catch plays at the Academy Center of the Arts, take art classes at places like the Art Box, or attend concerts and symphonies at various venues. Whatever your preferred form of art, Lynchburg offers opportunities to view it and participate in it yourself!

“

He was a wise man who invented beer.

-Plato

Bars, Breweries, and Wineries

Similar to our list of some of the area's best food, we have compiled a list of a few of our bars, breweries, and wineries you should be certain to visit.

- The Waterdog
- Apocalypse Aleworks
- Star Hill on Main Brewery
- El Jefe Taqueria Garaje
- No. 7 Rooftop Bar
- The Clubhouse
- The Skyline Grill
- Bootleggers
- Three Roads Brewing
- Rivermont Pizza
- Greenhaus Beer Garden
- Leo Grande Winery

A city for history buffs

1. The American Civil War Museum
2. Fort Early
3. Anne Spencer's House
4. Poplar Forest
5. Appomattox Courthouse
National Historic Park
6. Point of Honor
7. Historic Sandusky
8. Battle of Lynchburg Driving Tour
9. Lynchburg Museum
10. Legacy Museum
11. Maier Museum of Art
12. Miller Claytor House
13. Old City Cemetery
14. South River Meeting House
15. National D-Day Memorial

Conclusion and Next Steps

This guide is a resource for you to begin your journey of exploring all the Lynchburg area has to offer. However, this gives only a cursory glance at all there is to discover. We have multitude of superb attractions, restaurants, breweries, bars, wineries, and festivals not listed here. Truly the only way to experience it all is by living here.

If you need help selling your home and choosing from the Lynchburg area's plethora of unique properties, don't hesitate to reach out. We would be happy to help you move into your dream home so you can begin exploring all the area has to offer!

Thank you!

“Nothing would give me greater pleasure than to be useful to the town of Lynchburg. I consider it as the most interesting spot in the state.” –Thomas Jefferson

steve@stevenealhomes.com

stevenealhomes.com
